MALCOLM X COLLEGE
IMPROVES FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEEK

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Malcolm X College improved Faculty Development Week by strengthening the focus on academics. The theme of the program was "Faculty Empowering Students to Assume Learning Responsibilities". To accomplish this, both internal presenters and external lecturers were invited to address the pedagogy of teaching and learning. This was effective in that it was connected to faculty and the classroom, the College Self-Study Evaluation, Enrollment Management, Assessment and Analysis for the College Educational Plan; and that the following Presenters and Guest Lecturers participated in the program:

Faculty:

CM! Winters Palacio – Library
Helen Doss – Communication and Fine Arts
Hope Essien – Mathematics
Tracie Hudson – Biology

Faculty Panel on Service Learning and Learning Communities

Guest Lecturers:

Dr. Wanda Grady-Ward, Associate Professor
School of Education, North Park University

Dr. Richard Rutschman
Northern Illinois University

Presenters:

Assessment Presentation – Harold Washington College Assessment Team
Self-Study Presentation – Kennedy-King College Self-Study Team
SWOT Analysis – Walter Fisher, Director of Diversity, Institute of Cultural Affairs

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
