BANK TELLER PROGRAM
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on July 7 Dr. Cecilia Lopez joined Dr. Bill McMillan, Associate Vice Chancellor (ret), City Colleges of Chicago, Will Edwards, Assistant Commissioner, Mayor's Office of Workforce Development (MOWD) and Jason Grade, Human Resource Officer, Citibank, at the graduation ceremony for Harold Washington College's Bank Teller training program, and that nineteen students earned certificates by completing a rigorous 240-hour curriculum that prepares them to work in the banking industry. As of this printing, 10 graduates have been placed in teller and other positions at Citibank, Marquette Bank and Park National Bank, and that MOWD underwrote the instructional costs and Citigroup funded the purchase of workbooks and study materials. We wish to congratulate these students and wish them well in their new careers. Special thanks to Business and Industry personnel Sandra Tanzer and Nancy Kramer for program oversight.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
