GRADUATE WINS RESEARCH AWARD
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Truman College graduate and current UIC student Konstantin Khrustovm and a partner won a Best Project Award at the Maryland Engineering Research Internship Teams (MERIT) Annual Fair August 11; and that MERIT is an 11-week summer research program offering top undergraduate engineering students from around the country the opportunity to engage in cutting-edge, team-based, cross-disciplinary research projects at the University of Maryland; and that Konstantin's project, done in partnership with Saket Vora from North Carolina State University, was titled High Powered Wideband Microwave Interference on Switching Power Supplies.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
