DAIMLERCHRYSLER DONATES $22,655 JEEP TO AUTO PROGRAM
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that DaimlerChrysler has donated a 2007 Jeep Compass worth $22,655 to the college's Automotive Technology Program; and that the donation not only ensures that Truman students work on the most up-to-date car models, but also turns them into potential recruits for DaimlerChrysler, increasing their chances that they'll find work after graduation; and that Truman Automotive graduates already enjoy a nearly 100 percent job placement rate with many of them being hired before finishing their coursework at Truman.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
