CONTINUING EDUCATION WEB PAGE WINS LERN AWARD
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that the Continuing Education Department's web page has won an award for Best Internet Home Page in the 2008 International LERN Awards; and and that LERN, the Learning Resources Network, an international association of lifelong learning programming offering information and resources to providers of lifelong learning programs, reported that judging was more competitive this year than in any previous year; and that the Continuing Education Home Page was designed by Truman Web Master Audrey Berns with content provided by Laura Smith, a Coordinator II in Continuing Education.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
