County of Cook and State of Illinois

TAX COUNSELING PROJECT 2006
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Harold Washington College and The Center for Economic Progress collaborated for the 11th year to provide Federal and State Income Tax Return Preparation on site at Harold Washington College [2004 was the exception to as a tax site due to building renovation], which was the only 2006 Loop Site and;

that the Loop Site operating hours of Monday – Thursday between 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM and 5:30 – 8:00 PM, and Saturday, 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM, provided free tax preparation to families (more than one person in the household) with income of less than $40,000 and individuals with less than $15,000 earned in calendar year 2006, and;

that the Loop Site processed 2,293 Federal and State Income Tax Returns which generated $3,162,456 in tax refunds to families and individuals, and;

that The Tax Counseling Project is a collaboration of staff at Harold Washington College, which covers areas of operation in the Security, Office of Information Technology, Housekeeping and Engineering, Multi-Media Services, Business & Auxiliary Services, Building Management, and Office of Instruction, and;

that The Tax Counseling Project is the largest community service program at Harold Washington College and has been consistently improved since it inaugural program in 1995.

Respectfully submitted,
