

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois*SECOND ANNUAL ONE-DAY CONFERENCE
MALE MENTORING PROGRAM
ADVISING OFFICE
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE*THE CHANCELLOR*REPORTS

that the Male Mentoring Program Committee of the Advising Office of Harold Washington College, sponsored its Second Annual One Day Conference on Thursday, April 26, 2007 entitled "Building Beyond the Stereotypes: Continuing the Journey". This was the third of three events scheduled for the Spring 2007 semester sponsored by the Male Mentoring Program Committee, and funded by the Office of the President, and;

that the Program included the following presentations: An Address by President John Wozniak, The Importance of the Political Process by David Orr, Cook County Clerk, Entrepreneurship by John Rico, Rico Enterprises, Inc., The Importance of Spirituality by Kevin Collins, C.M., DePaul University, Building Beyond the Stereotypes: Continuing the Journey by Keynote Speaker Jim Rose, Sports Anchor, ABC-TV, How the Legal System Effects Males by Judge Eugene Pincham, and a Musical Selection by Maceo Thomas, HWC staff member, and;

that the workshop provided an opportunity for Washington students and staff to learn about specific issues that affect males, an opportunity to register to vote and for free HIV testing, and;

that over 170 participants attended the workshop.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor

June 20, 2007