

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

TECHNOLOGY IN EDUCATION DAY 2007 CONFERENCE HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Harold Washington College hosted the faculty driven Technology in Education Day 2007 Conference (TiE2007@HWC) on Friday April 13, 2007, and;

that the purpose of the conference was to provide an opportunity for City Colleges of Chicago (CCC) faculty to share ways in which they integrate technology into their teaching, and;

that welcoming remarks were delivered to over 150 faculty in attendance by Deidra Lewis, Executive Vice Chancellor; John Dozier, Vice Chancellor of Office of Information Technology; John Wozniak, President of Harold Washington College, and Ephrem Rabin, Manager of Web-Enhanced Learning and Conference Coordinator, and;

that faculty in attendance from across the District were briefed on the new e-mail system to be rolled out in academic year 2007-2008 and the Blackboard Course Management System, and;

that the break-out sessions consisted both of subject specific and broad-based educational applications of technology, some of the topics were: Engaging the Learner by Remote Control, Discussion Forums based on Virtual Visits, Scientific Workplace, Do It Yourself Tech Projects, Microsoft Word: Tricks of the Trade and;

that the conference concluded with a raffle drawing where three lucky attendees won iPods, which were donated by publishers in attendance at the general sessions.

Respectfully submitted
