EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY CENTERS PROGRAM
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on April 11, 2007 the Educational Opportunity Center and Malcolm X College hosted "Bridges to Careers" with collaboration from the Department of Human Services – Service Connectors, and staff from Chicago Housing Authority-Dawson Technical Institute. The event brought 25 participants from all across Chicago to Malcolm X College. The participants were administered the TABE test or Compass test depending on the program they selected and the requirement of said program. Malcolm X College testing department provided the Compass test to 5 participants and the Chicago Housing Authority provided the TABE test to the remainder; and

FURTHER that the Educational Opportunity Center provided information regarding the program and how they may assist the participants in navigating into post-secondary programs. Mr. Aaron Wissmann conducted the presentation and communicated the educational possibilities available to the potential students. Mr. Wissmann discussed the Sterile Processing Technician and OGBYN Technician programs offered through Surgical Technology. Ms. Jackie Smith, Director of the Certified Nursing Assistant Program, discussed the program and job opportunities
