WRIGHT COLLEGE'S STUDENT-RUN COFFEE CAFÉ OPENS

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Monday, April 9, at 1:45 p.m., Wright College's new student-run café served its first cup of coffee at a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The café, which was demanded by students, launched by students, and is being run by students, was spearheaded by Keyla Torres, SGA President 2006-2007, and is the first of its kind in the City Colleges of Chicago system. The café will serve students and faculty in need of a snack and a pick-me-up during the hours when Wright's cafeteria is closed. It is located in the apple-shaped café in the atrium.

that to assist the students with this endeavor, Student Government Association Advisors - Professor Jane Wagoner, Professor Keith McCoy, Professor Stephanie Battle, Beth Barton and Dean Romell Murden-Woldu completed a five-week food sanitation class for the purpose of receiving the food sanitation license necessary to open and operate the café.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
