OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH CELEBRATION

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Monday October 15, 2007 the Organization of Latin-American Students and the Office of Student Services hosted a Hispanic Heritage Month celebration. This event was celebrated with a display of music and entertainment; that the celebration included a Latin themed dinner followed by a brief presentation from Humanities professor Luis Delgado-Quevado and a performance from Chicago's Latin performers, Fusion Salcedo. The event also featured an art exhibit by local artist Roman Villarreal; and that other events were held in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month including a kick-off celebration sponsored by student organizations that featured food, music and giveaways and a weekly movie screening that featured Latin inspired movies. Over 100 students and members of the community participated in the celebration.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
