COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS

OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE PARTICIPATES IN NATIONAL TUTORING ASSOCIATION “TUTORPALOOZA”

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Olive-Harvey College participated in the National Tutoring Association’s “TutorPalooza” event held at Wheeling High School on Saturday, October 13, 2007; and that “TutorPalooza” was the National Tutoring Association’s first peer tutoring initiative event, where hundreds of peer tutors were trained and certified by professional tutors from California, Florida, Illinois, New York, and Ohio including faculty and staff from Olive-Harvey College. The faculty and staff who assisted with the certification training were Professors Austin Ferguson and Barbara Brown; Master Tutors Mariama Buchanan and Remy Washington and Director of Academic Support Services Dr. Paula Causher;

and that the Olive-Harvey College Tutoring Program is certified by the National Tutoring Association. In spring of 2007 Olive-Harvey College was awarded Program of the year by the National Tutoring Association.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
