DAIMLER CHRYSLER DONATES TRUCK TO AUTOMOTIVE PROGRAM
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Daimler Chrysler has donated a 2002 Dodge Ram-Tuner valued at $30,000 to the Truman College Automotive Technology Program to be used as a teaching tool; and that donations like these -- and the Automotive Technology Program has received many -- are not only the result of dealers' and manufacturers' generosity, but of hard work on the part of the program's lead instructor, Harold Santamaria.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
