RICHARD J. DALEY COLLEGE
Hosted the National Hispanic College Fair

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Richard J. Daley College hosted the National Hispanic College Fair March 12-13, 2008. The fair was attended by 1000 students representing 41 Chicago area high schools and attracted College Admissions representatives from 57 colleges and universities offering baccalaureate transfer opportunities.

that the National Hispanic College Fair was founded in 1991 to help under-represented students in their college selection process. Annually they sponsor over 75 college fairs throughout the United States whereby 125,000 students are reached and 1800 colleges and universities participate.

that Teresa McKinney, Assistant Dean of Student Services, and Eduardo Lugo, College Advisor, welcomed the contingent to the College. Ms. McKinney provided a brief presentation of college offerings to the high school counselors that were present.

Respectfully Submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
