

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

PSYCHOLOGY STUDENT TO TAKE PART IN DIVERSITY PROJECT
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Anastacia Clapper, an officer in the college's chapter of the Psi Beta psychology honor society, has been selected to participate in the Diversity Project 2000 and Beyond (DP2kB) Psychology for a Global Community 2008 Summer Institute sponsored by the American Psychological Association (APA); and that DP2kB is a leadership and mentoring program designed for minority honor students attending community colleges, to encourage them to become professional psychologists; and that the institute, which will take place August 12-15 in Boston during the APA convention, offers a full ride for out-of-state students like Anastacia, including airfare and lodging.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor

August 7, 2008