County of Cook and State of Illinois

PANELISTS DISCUSS EXPERIENCES OF AFRICAN IMMIGRANTS
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that in honor of Chicago's celebration of Africa Week, Truman College hosted a panel discussion, The African Immigrant Experience: From Exile to Opportunity, November 13; and that event was organized for guests of the African Studies Association's Annual Conference and featured exchanges among visiting and local professionals, academics, community leaders, and students from the African immigrant community in Chicago; and that the students shared their experiences of exile and the ways in which Truman helped them succeed academically and professionally.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
