THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Associated College Press awarded Wright Times, the student newspaper at Wright College, third place in its "Best of the Show" competition at the National Collegiate Press Convention in Kansas City. The on-site competition for Overall Excellence reflects students efforts for a single edition coverage in content, quality of writing and reporting leadership on the opinion page evidence of in-depth reporting, design, photography, art, and graphics. The Wright Times staff entered the November 2008 edition in this competition.

that additionally, Wright Times Editor, Vicki Holda, won an Honorable Mention in the national "Story of the Year" competition in the category of "Diversity". This competition does not distinguish between community college and college and university writers. Ms. Holda's story "Behind Asian Eyes" represented the only entry qualifying as a finalist in this category written by a community college journalist.
