that Maricela was one of 68 graduates who were honored at the May, 2008 ceremony. Along with another 75 graduates who were recognized at the college's October 26, 2007 GED graduation, the college has identified 143 GED graduates in the last one-year period. Approximately 8% of the college's credit enrollment is comprised of students who have first completed GED studies and/or English as a Second Language studies through the Adult Education division.
