THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Richard J. Daley College hosted the H.E.A.T. (Higher Education Advisory Task Force) College Fair in collaboration with Chicago Public Schools on May 21, 2008. The fair was attended by more than 150 students representing more than 11 Chicago Public Schools and attracted College Admissions representatives from over 25 colleges and universities offering baccalaureate transfer opportunities.

that the H.E.A.T. Task Force was an initiative of the Chicago Education Alliance (CEA) which is a consortium of Chicago area universities dedicated to the effort of transitioning high school students to college. The CEA includes eleven major universities, the City Colleges of Chicago, and the Chicago Public Schools.

that during the college fair, we provided COMPASS placement exams to 50 students, FAFSA workshops, and admission and registration assistance.

Respectfully Submitted,
