Nia Middle School Eighth Grade Graduation
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Nia Middle School held their Eighth Grade graduation at Malcolm X College on June 9, 2008. Approximately 300 students and guests attended. Their parents and guests were provided college registration information, and given the opportunity to register to vote by the Renaissance Women. Also, TRIO programs: Upward Bound, Talent Search, and Educational Opportunity Center staff attended and distributed their program recruitment information as well. Additionally, the graduation speaker was Zerrie D. Campbell, President Emeritus. She provided a fantastic motivational speech regarding the importance of education and staying on the right path. She was completing her three-year mentorship of young ladies of Nia Middle School as enstooled Queen Mother, Nana Akua Sarpong.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
