MALE MENTORING PROGRAM
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Male Mentoring Program Committee of Harold Washington College, sponsored its Third Annual One Day Conference on Thursday, April 24, 2008 entitled "The Journey Begins: Success Starts Here". This was the second of two events scheduled for the Spring 2008 semester sponsored by the Male Mentoring Program Committee, and funded by the Office of the President and Harold Washington's Student Government Association, and;

The Program included the following presentations on The Importance of Mentoring: An Address by President John Wozniak, a Presentation by Chancellor Wayne D. Watson, Presentations by Keynote Speaker, Alderman of the 27th Ward, Walter Burnett, Jr. and David R. Ramos, Investigator for the Office of the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago and a Musical Selection by Maceo Thomas, HWC staff member, and;

that our speakers were interviewed by FOX News, and that the workshop spoke to mentoring issues and provided an opportunity for prospective Harold Washington Student Mentees to be paired with Staff Mentors, and;

that over 164 participants attended the workshop and 32 students signed up to be mentored and 19 staff members volunteered to be Mentors.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
