OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE PRESENTS TAPROOTS, INC

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Olive-Harvey College Student Services hosted an event entitled "Taproots, Inc: Sex in the City...Keepin' it Real". The event was held April 21, 2008 and included onsite HIV testing, educational workshops presented by the Illinois Department of Public Health and spoken word from artist Mama Brenda and various artists from the Taproots group. Students who took advantage of free HIV testing were entered into a drawing for a laptop provided by Taproots and the Illinois Department of Public Health. Over 25 students tested and the workshops were well received by students and faculty.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
