BIG TURNOUT FOR SPRING "SPEAK UP" SPEECH CONTEST
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

- REPORTS that about 200 students, faculty, and staff members watched the finals of the spring Speak Up speech contest April 24 at Truman; and
- that the contest, coordinated by Franklin Reynolds, features the best speeches from students in the spring Speech 101 classes; and
- that students delivered their speeches first in class and were voted into the contest by fellow students; and
- that finalists were judged by a panel that included Truman Interim President Lynn Walker and Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Cynthia Armster; and
- that Wesley Daniel in Tom Lenane's Speech 101 class won the competition.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
