

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
Former Adult Education Student Achieves Career Success

MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on Tuesday, February 26, 2008, Crystal A. Johnson, former Adult Education student at Malcolm X College was hired as a Pharmacy Technician at the CVS Pharmacy on the northwest side of Chicago. Ms. Johnson began her course work preparation for the GED examination on September 6, 2005 at Malcolm X College. Through effective teaching and learning, diligence, good study habits, and a commitment to achieving academic, career and personal success, Ms. Johnson successfully passed the state high school equivalency exam on June 6, 2006 after 32-weeks of intense preparation in the Adult Education Program at Malcolm X College; and that upon successfully completing her course work at Malcolm X College, Ms. Johnson went on to further her educational studies at Northwestern Business College. She started the Pharmacy Technician program in December 2006 and completed the program in November 2007. Ms. Johnson attributes part of her career success due to the educational support and foundation she received while at Malcolm X College, coupled with the daily words of encouragement from her Adult Education instructor. Ms. Johnson is an example of the mission of Malcolm X College, empowerment through education.

Respectfully submitted,
