WILBUR WRIGHT COLLEGE
Hosts
Tenth Annual ASPIRA YOUTH CONFERENCE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS: that on Friday, April 4, 2008 Wright College hosted the tenth annual ASPIRA 'Atrevete' Youth Conference and College Fair. Attended by 350 Chicago Public High School students and 50 parents, the conference provides young people with information on life skills, career and college choices. Breakout sessions included topics such as Youth and Gang Prevention, Mapping out your Future, Youth and Dating, Underage Drinking and Driving, Healthy Relationships, Overcoming Crisis and Creating Opportunity, and Financial Aid for College.

that keynote speaker Miguel Del Valle, Clerk of the City of Chicago, reinforced the day's events by encouraging the participants to stay in school, to avoid gangs, drugs and guns, and to look at the opportunities available to them at the City Colleges of Chicago.

that the event also included a college fair where participants could learn about educational opportunities available to them after high school graduation.

Respectfully Submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
