Learning Communities Program (LCP) sponsors Book Festival

MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that the Malcolm X College Learning Communities Program (LCP), in cooperation with the Chicago Public Library conducted its "Fall 2008 Book Festival". The festival is an annual October event held in various locations across the city in the spirit of celebrating and engaging works of literature. The College has the honor of being one of the institutions participating in this year's festival. The texts selected for the festival were The Autobiography of Malcolm X as told by Alex Haley and The Handmaid's Tale. The festival was comprised of two sessions hosted by MXC faculty involved in the LCP: October 10, 2008 ~ The Autobiography of Malcolm X and October 17, 2008 ~ The Handmaid's Tale. Each session consisted of a brief presentation on the literary work followed by a group discussion. Both events were free and open to the public.

Respectfully submitted,
