County of Cook and State of Illinois

Raising the Bar in Adult Education Fall Conference

MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that after over two years of research, planning, writing, and curriculum piloting, on Friday September 12, 2008 and Saturday, September 13, 2008, Malcolm X College served as the host college to over 700 Adult Educators, publishers and presenters for the roll-out of the new Adult Education Curriculum Framework at the Raising the Bar in Adult Education District-wide Conference. This professional development conference introduced Adult Educators from the seven (7) City Colleges of Chicago to the new curricula which will further catapult our students into the 21st century by providing them with the necessary tools to achieve student learning outcomes that are relevant to their lives and will help them in transitioning to the next level of instruction.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
