

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

“RAISE YOUR VOICE” RAISES ISSUES IN A TOUGH ELECTION YEAR
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Truman College is taking part in the Raise Your Voice campaign to address issues of concern to students, faculty, staff, and the community during the run-up to the 2008 election; and that among the programs carried out in October were a debate October 14 of the issues between faculty members, moderated by members of the staff of the college newspaper, and a panel discussion of economic, immigration, foreign, and domestic policy issues; and that panelists for the latter included Dr. David Pierce, former president of the American Association of Community Colleges, on education; Dr. David Mirza of the School of Business Administration at Loyola University Chicago, on the economy; attorney Caroline Orzac Shoenberger, a lecturer in the Business Department at Harold Washington College, on immigration; Antonio Rosas-Landa, Senior Editor of the Editorial Page of Hoy newspaper; and physician Richard Guthman, research director at Illinois Masonic Family Medicine Residency and assistant editor for the Journal of Family Practice, on healthcare.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor

November 6, 2008