County of Cook and State of Illinois

CHEMISTRY PROFESSOR, STUDENT HAVE RESEARCH PUBLISHED
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Dr. Mohamed El-Maazawi, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, has had his first research paper as a full-time Truman faculty member published in the highly selective Journal of the American Chemical Society, generally considered the premiere chemistry journal in the world; and that the research for the paper, Photochemistry of Adsorbed Nitrate, was done at the University of Iowa in the summer of 2007 with the help of Jason Bone, who was a Truman student at the time.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
