REPORTS

that on Saturday, August 9, 2008, the Humboldt Park Vocational Center held its 2008 Commencement exercises at the Boat House in Humboldt Park. A total of 68 students completed their studies that lead to Advance Certificates in various occupational programs offered at the Center. Sixty eight simultaneous completers represents the largest graduating class in the history of the Humboldt Park Center. The graduating class was composed of 14 completers of the Computer Numerical Control Certificate, 21 completers of the Electronics Industrial Maintenance Certificate, 10 completers of the Information Processing Technology Certificate, and 23 completers of the Practical Nursing program.

that the commencement address was given by Alderman Billy Ocasio, who encouraged the graduates to use their education to strengthen their families and the Humboldt Park Community. In offering his congratulations to the graduates, he challenged the graduates to continue to support the Center and to use their experience to recruit for the Center.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
