

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS*HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE FORENSICS TEAM IS A WINNER
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE*THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on February 2, 2008 Harold Washington College's (HWC) speech and forensic team won awards in four different categories at the College of DuPage's Frankly Speaking tournament, and earned the team's only first place finish of the season so far; and that the tournament was held at Harper College in Palatine, Ill, where more than a hundred students from 14 different two-and four-year colleges competed; and that students Perre Shelton placed 1st in Poetry Interpretation, team parliamentarian Ryan Degooyer received 2nd in Impromptu Speaking, team president Michael Carrejo placed 4th in Persuasion Speaking, and Lakeesha Harris placed 5th in Dramatic Interpretation; and that the HWC speech team is the Sigma Phi Chapter of Phi Rho Pi, which is the national honor society of speech and forensics for two-year colleges.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor

March 6, 2008