THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Wednesday, December 19, 2007 the Adult Education Department hosted a Thank You for A Job Well Done Luncheon for its 32 Community Based partners. The partners were recognized for their commitment to the adult learner by ensuring that the educational needs of the clients they serve are being met through GED, ESL or Citizenship classes which are serviced through Malcolm X College; and FURTHER that the luncheon served as the platform for which partners could network and exchange ideas about successful recruitment initiatives and retention strategies that have worked. The luncheon was representative of over 30 years of partnership agreements. Each partner was presented with a 19x20 poster showcasing the free educational classes offered at their site in collaboration with Malcolm X College.
