MALCOLM X COLLEGE GRANTED A SCIENCE EDUCATION FOR NEW CIVIC ENGAGEMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES AWARD
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Malcolm X College has been awarded a two-year National Science Foundation sub-award by the National Center for Science and Civic Engagement (NCSCE)/Science Education for New Civic Engagements and Responsibilities (SENCER). The College submitted and presented to the 2009 SENCER Summer Institute an award application titled, “Social Justice Through Science Education: A Malcolm X College Commitment.” The College plans to provide faculty development, improved student learning opportunities, and enhanced science curricula related to issues of public health, i.e., climate change, world hunger and extreme poverty, assisted reproduction, and global disease proliferation/pandemics. The SENCER team members are Professors Tracie Hudson, Dr. Carole Heath, Gail Grabczynski Hope Essien, and Dean Helen Doss (Principal Investigator/Team Leader).

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
