Criminal Justice Students

MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on October 20th Malcolm X College Criminal Justice students, with Instructor Jim Redlich, attended the American Society for Industry Security (ASIS) Chicago Chapter meeting and participated in the presentation made by Phillip S. Deming, CPP, CFE. The topic: "Business Watch Programs: Maximizing Security Opportunities", provided students with insights that these programs are cost effective opportunities for private security professionals to enhance their role in influencing crime prevention within their workplace. The lecture provided current information on crime prevention methods and strategies. Students met security professionals and created relationships to establish employment opportunities in security businesses and organizations.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
