THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that, Richard J. Daley College faculty and administrators attended the second year of the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Summer Assessment Academy on June 10-12, 2009. The purpose of the HLC Summer Assessment Academy is to assist colleges in the development of effective assessment strategies.

that, the following members of the Richard J. Daley College team attended the HLC Summer Assessment Academy:

Ms. Helena Craules, Art Faculty
Ms. Tanya Firestone, English Faculty
Mr. Michael Held, English Faculty
Ms. Carlissa Jackson, Research Assistant
Ms. Cherie Meador, Associate Dean of Instruction
Dr. Vernese Edghill-Walden, Associate Director of Research
Dr. Guo Quan (Jack) Zhang, Mathematics Faculty

that, the peer-reviewed accomplishments of the Richard J. Daley College Assessment Team were recognized by the HLC staff for two presentations. The Daley College team made a presentation entitled, The A-Team: Assessing General Education Outcomes at Richard J. Daley College.

that Ms. Cherie Meador, Associate Dean of Instruction, was selected to serve as a panelist during the HLC Summer Assessment Academy. The panel presentation provided best practice models for the other participating colleges.
