MALCOLM X COLLEGE THEATRE SEASON

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that in April and May 2009, Malcolm X College presented its first comprehensive theatre season, with an adaptation of the novel Dracula and one-act play festival. The result of interdisciplinary collaboration among Art, Music, and Theatre instructors and students, Draquilla is a modern version of the classic vampire story, with a female Dracula and original music. Performance dates were April 29-May 1, 2009. The one-act play festival, “The Whole World is a Stage,” is a review of contemporary and historical plays acted and technologically supported by Malcolm X College students. Show times are April 27-May 11, 2009.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
