RICHARD J. DALEY COLLEGE
ILLINOIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE FACULTY ASSOCIATION
TEACHING AND LEARNING EXCELLENCE CONFERENCE PRESENTATION

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Richard J. Daley College faculty and administrators presented at the Illinois Community College Faculty Association (ICCFA) Teaching and Learning Excellence Conference on October 8-9, 2009, Springfield, IL.

that the presentation entitled, Developing a Faculty-Driven Assessment Initiative shared the development of core competencies in general education by the Richard J. Daley College faculty, and the process for assessing student learning in the general education core curriculum. The Daley College Assessment Initiative was developed at the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Summer Assessment Academy in June 2008. This peer-reviewed model serves as the conceptual framework for the assessment of student learning. The Daley College Assessment Team members who presented at the ICCFA Teaching and Learning Excellence Conference are as follows:

Catherine Han, Ph.D., Faculty, Department of Chemistry
Christos Hadjiagapiou, Ph.D., Faculty, Department of Biology
Cherie Meador, Associate Dean of Instruction
Vernese Edghill-Walden, Ph.D., Associate Director, Institutional Research & Evaluation

that the Illinois Community College Faculty Association Teaching & Learning Excellence Conference was attended by Daley College faculty and staff as a professional development component of the college's Student Success Initiative. This statewide forum showcases successful, effective, and exemplary programs and initiatives at Illinois community colleges and promotes the sharing of best practices to improve academic excellence in service of the community.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
