REPORTS that Dr. Timothy Matos of the Communications Department will have his essay, "The Native Cure: Ibsen, Pintero, and the Containment of Mrs. Tanqueray," published as a chapter in a book, Origins of English Dramatic Modernism, which will be released some time this fall; and that the editor of The Houston Literary Review commissioned three of Tim's poems for the July 2009 poetry issue; and that Tim's full-length play, Frost Heaves Melinda, had a reading at Chicago Dramatists in June, his short play, Working It/Working Out, had a staged reading as a part of Instant Theatre at Chicago Dramatists in July, and he was interviewed on the website Playwright's Cluster, which is run by Australian Playwright Joanna Erksine.
