2ND ANNUAL MALE EMPOWERMENT AND LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
“LEARNING TO LEAD, LEARNING TO LEARN”
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on February 21, 2009 Malcolm X College hosted the 2nd Annual Male Empowerment and Leadership Conference “Learning to Lead, Leading to Learn.” Over 100 men from the Chicagoland area registered and attended the conference, including students, community leaders, and organization representatives. The conference afforded men from all ages, backgrounds, and perspectives an opportunity to connect with the college, the community, and other organizations that can support the goal of being empowered as a leader. A panel of distinguished leaders and educators were available to answer questions and concerns of the participants. The panel included: Roland Martin, CNN Political Analyst, John Dozier, Vice Chancellor of IT and CIO, Robert Fioretti, 2nd Ward Alderman, Miguel Del Valle, City Clerk of Chicago, and Samuel Jackson, Pastor New Freedom Kingdom Covenant Church. The event was chaired by Arlethia Mayes Malcolm X College Advisor.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
