BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

Cancer Research Project
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Dr. Farrokh Asadi, Chair of the Biological Sciences Department at Harold Washington College, teamed up with student Erin Shortlidge on a research project, and;

that together they co-authored a manuscript detailing some very promising results in cancer research, and;

that Dr. Farrokh's research involved introducing an adenoviral gene into advanced prostate cancer cells, decreasing their resistance to chemotherapy, thus making those cancer cells easier to kill, and;

that Dr. Farrokh's and Ms. Shortlidge's manuscript was published in the International Urology and Nephrology Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
