Black History Month 2010 and Living Legends Series
KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELOR

that Kennedy-King College and Teamwork Englewood kicked-off Black History Month 2010 under the theme “Lessons from Elders Passed to the Present”. The opening celebration funded in part by a LISC Chicago grant was held Monday, February 1, 2010 at 6:00pm in the U-Building theater at Kennedy-King College.

that the celebration began with community leaders launching hundreds of balloons from the corner of 63rd and Halsted streets in commemoration of Illinois abolishing slavery on February 1, 1865. The evening featured “A Conversation with Englewood Legends” moderated by Art Norman, award winning journalist, NBC5 Chicago News Anchor, Ret. and member of the KKC Media Communications Advisory Committee. The Legends included: Dr. Terry Mason- Chief Medical Officer for the Cook County Health and Hospitals System; James Reynolds, Jr. -Chairman and CEO, Loop Capital Markets; Henry P. Wilson “The community Mayor of Englewood”; and, Richard Hunt-Sculptor all of whom were featured in the City Colleges of Chicago “Rooted in Englewood” billboard campaign.

that Christine Houston, a KKC Alum who wrote the award winning play that was the original concept for the hit 1980’s TV sitcom “227” was also recognized as a “Legend”. Vocalist Maggie Brown, daughter of the late Oscar Brown, Jr., accompanied by Roland Brown and The Merchants & Co. Jazz orchestra performed.

that the ceremony introduced the on-going collection of Englewood narratives through the Teamwork Englewood Living Legends of Englewood project being conducted in association with Kennedy-King College.
