South Africa's Premier Shona Stone Sculptor Presents Art Lecture KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELOR

REPORTS

that Kennedy-King College in association with Gallery Guichard presented internationally acclaimed South African sculptor, Robert Chimungwa in a "masters" art lecture with Kennedy-King College art students on Tuesday, February 16, 2010.

that Mr. Robert Chimungwa is well known for his Shona art in Africa and Europe. The Shona people are well known for their ability to take a rough stone and carve it into an object of beauty. Gallery Guichard desires to bridge people of the African Diaspora by illuminating ancestral art connections through exhibitions and lectures. Mr. Chimungwa's lecture and WYCC-TV20 interview during the Kennedy-King College Black History Month Celebration, helped to achieve that goal.

Respectfully submitted,
