Washburne Culinary Institute Caters Restaurant Industry Event at KKC KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

that the Illinois Restaurant Association held its Induction ceremony at Kennedy-King College Tuesday, February 16, 2010. The welcome reception was held in Sikia Restaurant and the Great Hall was the site for dinner that served over 300 attendees. The event was both catered and serviced by Washburne Culinary Institute students and staff.

that in-coming IRA Chairman Everett Rand acknowledged WCI Provost William Reynolds for his leadership in maintaining the “longest running culinary school in the nation.” The event provided an opportunity to showcase the extraordinary talents of WCI students, faculty and staff, and to introduce Sikia Restaurant to industry leaders.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
