KKC Selected for Know Your Chicago 2010 Fall Tour
KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELOR

REPORTS

that the University of Chicago Know Your Chicago group (KYC) selected Kennedy-King College and Englewood as one of their five tour sites for fall 2010. Know Your Chicago is an annual fall lecture and tour series designed to promote civic awareness and participation. The series begins with a daylong symposium featuring speakers addressing the underlying issues related to the year's choice of five tours.

that each tour provides access to places not open to the public and speakers who are experts in their field. Each tour is offered twice. The scheduled tour dates are September 28 and 29. Deborah Crable, director of public relations joined community partners Doris Jones, director of New Communities Programs, Teamwork Englewood. Sam Smith, director, Perry Mansion and Daryl Nash, director of community relations, St. Bernard Hospital in providing information that lead to the committee's final decision.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
