MALCOLM X COLLEGE YOUTH BASKETBALL CLINIC
Malcolm X College

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Malcolm X College women and men basketball teams hosted a free youth basketball clinic for more than 55 boys and girls on January 2nd and January 16th, 2010 ranging from fifth through eighth grades. The clinics were designed to help young people enhance their basketball skills, including offensive and defensive skills via participation in scrimmage games that focused on team play, sportsmanship, and body dynamics. The Chicago Bulls and PepsiCo partnered with Malcolm X College by donating posters, merchandise, and beverages.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
