THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on February 20, 2010, Malcolm X College Enrollment Management and Student Services Division hosted the 3rd Annual Male Empowerment and Leadership Conference, “I Just Want to Be Successful”. The event drew more than 200 men representing the student body and community, from all ages and backgrounds. Workshops covered topics such as: Entrepreneurship, Spirituality, Financial Literacy and Banking, Where Art Thou Black Man, Healthy Mind and Healthy Body, Mentorship, and Successful Communication. Panel members included Mr. Jeffrey Leving, Attorney for Dad’s Rights; Jerome Richardson, Ph. D.; Deputy Director, Office of Men’s Health for Illinois, William Martin, Ed. D.; Motivational Speaker and Author, Henry Abraham; and Reverend Walter Jones, Founder and CEO of Fathers Who Care and Leadership Coach.

that the event also strengthened Malcolm X College’s relationships with diverse businesses and community organizations, including JP Morgan Chase Bank, Man Child, Iron Group, Johnson Trading Investments, Talented Tenth University, Goodland Investments, and Chicago Development Group.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
