Adult Education Great Cities Summit
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

that on June 29 and 30, 2010, Harold Washington College hosted the first Adult Education Great Cities Summit meeting, which was an initiative of the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Vocational and Adult Education and the National Institute of Literacy, and; that the core partners which participated in the Summit were CCC District Office Adult Education Department, Chicago Citywide Literacy Coalition, Chicago Workforce Investment Council, Illinois Community College Board Adult Education Department, and Illinois Department of Human Services, and;

that a paramount purpose of the Chicago Great Cities Initiative is to improve collaboration among adult education stakeholders in order to assure access to educational services in all areas of need and professional development that prepares educators to provide high quality literacy instruction to all including those with special learning needs.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
