COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS

WASHBURNE CULINARY INSTITUTE PASTRY STUDENTS
Kennedy-King College

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that WCI's talented pastry students competed in the October 24, 2010, Haunted Cupcake Competition sponsored by Pastry Chicago, and held at Old Orchard Mall. Chef Laura Vaughn was the lead judge for the competition, and helped judge 40 Spooky Cupcakes. All of the cupcakes were submitted anonymously, so none of the judges knew whose cupcakes they tasted; and that 9 out of the 40 competitors were Washburne Pastry Students! 2 of the top 5 cupcakes belonged to Washburne Pastry Students!! All 5 winners received gifts of kitchen tools donated by Kitchenaid and were exposed to a level of competition and creativity. It was a great event and all the students are looking forward to the Dec 4th Gingerbread Competition.

The students who were involved and attended were:

Joe Gosselin (Phase 1 Pastry) 3rd Place
Valency White (Graduate of our Pastry Program) 5th Place
Beverly Fitch (Phase 1 Pastry)
Katherine Hurkley (Phase 1 Pastry)
Tabitha Jackson (Phase 1 Pastry)
Andrew Navarro (Phase 3 pastry)
Quintella Thomas (Phase 3 Pastry)
Kim Baker (Phase 3 Pastry)

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
