BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

Business Plan Competition
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Harold Washington College student Susan Shimer won 3rd place in the First Annual City Colleges of Chicago Business Plan Competition, and;

that Ms. Shimer's business idea was called "Needle Little Relief," which provides high quality, fast and convenient acupuncture treatment in a clean and comfortable setting, and;

that Ms. Shimer was awarded a 6 credit hour scholarship and $100.00 cash, and;

that student Maribeth Anderson of Wilbur Wright College won 1st place and Malcolm X College student Lillian Matanmi won 2nd place, and;

that a total of 92 students participated in the 1st Annual CCC Business Plan Competition by submitting business plans for ideas ranging from culinary to auto tech, child development to IT, business to the arts, and;

that a distinguished panel of twenty-three judges scored the business plans and provided individualized feedback for each student, and;

that the competition provided an opportunity for the students to take their unique idea, think it through and organize it into a business plan, taking the next step toward creating businesses of their own.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
