AIDS AWARENESS MURAL DESIGNED BY OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE ART PROFESSOR M. CARLA CARR DEDICATED IN AUSTIN NEIGHBORHOOD

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Saturday, May 22, 2010 a special program to commemorate National HIV Vaccine Awareness Day 2010 was held in the Austin neighborhood of Chicago. The program in partnership with the AIDS Foundation of Chicago was entitled “With Austin Comes A Cure.”

that artists, residents, and politicians gathered for a ceremony to dedicate a 15x 30 feet community mural, entitled, “Austin is Doing Something (A.I.D.S)” designed by M. Carla Carr art instructor at Olive-Harvey College, muralist and activist. The mural will be located on the northeast corner of West Chicago and North Mayfield Avenues. The mural was inspired by “With Me Comes A Cure,” a public awareness campaign of the AIDS Foundation of Chicago designed primarily to address the growing HIV epidemic among African-Americans and stress the importance of developing an HIV/AIDS vaccine.

Respectfully submitted,
